Day Care Centre Competiton

A young Galway based couple are leaving their nine to five lives and heading to live in a remote area of Africa. Dave Munn and Jo Brown, both 29, are part of a small team planning to build an environmentally friendly day-care centre for AIDS orphans in Botswana. With the kind support of Hazel Hendy and three renowned

Irish artists, Three pieces of artwork have each been generously donated. These pieces will be used as prizes in the raffle, to be drawn on 13 Dec. '05. The works, by Jim Kavanagh, Deborah Donnelly and Bernie Prendergast, can be viewed on the project's website: www.tshesebeorphanproject.blogspot.com or by visiting Bold Art Gallery, Merchants Road. Raffle tickets are €5.00 each and are on sale around town.
